***Childminders Don't Miss Out!! Collect your FREE Book Bag***

The Minister for Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth, Roderic O'Gorman, T.D., under the National Action Plan for Childminding has launched the Childminding Little Libraries Initiative.

What is the aim of the Childminding Little Libraries?

The Childminding Little Libraries Initiative - supports childminders to develop little libraries in their homes with quality book titles in English and Irish. The focus of this initiative is to support early language and literacy development.

Childminders are invited to contact their local City/County Childcare Committee, Roscommon County Childcare Committee CLG on 094 96 22540 or info@roscommonchildcare.ie to arrange to collect their book bag. This project is aimed at childminders who are not required to register with Tusla, Tusla registered childminders can access their book bags from their local library as part of the Little Libraries Initiative.

2021-2028

The National Action Plan for Childminding

Consultation with childminders has informed the development of the Action Plan. Childminders will continue to be central to this process and will be consulted further at key stages.

National Action Plan for Childminding (2021-2028) – Steering Group was established in Sept 2021, to drive, oversee and monitor implementation of the NAPC.

This Steering group will support four Advisory Groups. Two Advisory Groups have been established and have representation from childminders and the National Voluntary Organisations. Keep up to date with the NAPC by visiting their website <https://www.gov.ie/en/campaigns/df207-national-action-plan-for-childminding-2021-2028/>
